Making Backups (Kubernetes)
Unit 2.2.1

Making Backups

When Rancher is installed into an RKE cluster, it uses the etcd datastore to hold its configuration. If you're backing up the RKE cluster, you're backing up Rancher.

Be sure to move backups offsite, either manually or by having RKE copy them to an S3-compatible datastore after making a snapshot.

References

Backups for Rancher in RKE - https://rancher.com/docs/rancher/v2.x/en/backups/backups/ha-backups/