Editing Cluster Options

Unit 4.1.1

Editing Cluster Options

Once the cluster is up and running, you make changes to it from the edit screen. In addition to changing cluster membership for hosted, imported, and RKE clusters (infrastructure and custom), you can also edit cluster options and manage node pools for RKE clusters (infrastructure and custom).

The only option that you cannot change after installation is the network provider.

References

Cluster Configuration - https://rancher.com/docs/rancher/v2.x/en/cluster-admin/editing-clusters/