Namespace Management
Unit 4.5.1

Namespace Management

You can move a namespace to a different project from the top-level cluster menu where Projects are defined. If the destination project does not have a quota, but the origin project does, then the quota that was attached to the namespace is released.

It is not possible to move a namespace into a project that already has a resource quota configured.

References

Namespace Management - https://rancher.com/docs/rancher/v2.x/en/project-admin/namespaces/